

This form is for members who do not hold the office of constable, including authorised officers, who have chosen to join the scheme.

This includes the following membership categories:

- Savings contributor (no employer contributions are made on your behalf).
- Optional entrant (your employer contributions are deducted from your pay).

Your contribution options depend on your membership category and when you joined the scheme. Please talk to your Payroll Officer if you need help working through your options. Any change you make will start from the next convenient pay period.

Use this form to:

- change your contribution rate (savings contributors)
- start employer contributions (savings contributors)
- start making additional voluntary contributions to the scheme or to change your voluntary contributions (non-constabulary members).

Any voluntary contributions must be at least 1% and no more than 10%.

Savings contributors – change your contribution rate

If you are a savings contributor, you can increase your contributions subject to certain minimums.

Date you joined the scheme	Minimum contribution rate
Before 1 April 2008	2% of salary or $313 per year (whichever is greater)
On or after 1 April 2008	4% of salary

- I would like to make (or change my) additional voluntary contributions to the PSS as follows. I understand these voluntary contributions are in addition to the minimum contributions detailed above.

_____ % of salary (must be at least 1% and no more than 10%).

Savings contributors – start employer contributions

If you joined the scheme as a savings contributor, you may choose to become an optional entrant at any time. If you do, your contributions will change to 6% of salary (if you are currently contributing a lesser percentage). Employer contributions made on your behalf will be paid from your existing total remuneration. Starting employer contributions will affect the amount of your fortnightly take-home pay. Talk to your Payroll Officer if you have questions about this.

- I would like to become an optional entrant and for employer contributions to be deducted from my pay.

Optional entrants – make (or change your) additional voluntary contributions

Additional voluntary contributions are deducted from your fortnightly pay as a percentage of salary. They will be credited to your member's account and are subject to the same rules for in-service withdrawals as your regular member contributions. Police will not match any additional voluntary contributions you make.

- I would like to make (or change my) additional voluntary contributions to the PSS as follows:

_____ % of salary (must be at least 1% and no more than 10%)
